

Why? Due to the loss of their wetland homes

Flufftails are dependent on the wetlands for their survival. Sadly, people don't realise that they are destroying wildlife homes to build their own.

